VALENTINE'S DAY: ALL THE LOVE IN THE WORLD IN A JEWEL

A wealth of designs from the HOMI Fashion& Jewels Exhibition community for celebrating lovers' day in style

One lover, many loves: we all have our one! Just like we all have that one token of love that, especially on Valentine's Day, becomes an expression of the truest and most intense of all feelings. How do you choose that treasured symbol that marks such an intimate occasion?

The community of the event dedicated to fashion accessories, bijou and trendy jewellery tells of love through its participants' designs. The most authentic Made in Italy creations with enchanting creative content and exquisite craftsmanship.

One piece of jewellery that transforms into Cupid himself with its love notes is the Almas design that combines iconic plaques of the sweetest phrases ready to warm your heart and make your loved one always feel near. Such as? "Coupon good for one warm embrace", is just one example!

In love we are united, and even when we're apart, we're still together: Vivian Gioielli's silver charms remind us of this with their hearts split so both lovers can take a piece of it with them. After all, "We are one!"

If love and love-hearts is the perfect formula, then "without butterflies in my stomach it's not worth a thing" is even more true, as the Ofelia Beltrame designer bracelet states, a phrase that stands out among semi-precious stones and golden glimmers, written on hearts!

Love is a flame that grows into a fiery passion, and it's celebrated by the Matuta Gioielli set with its elegant, shifting form that creates genuine flares of light through its cast bronze. Earrings, rings and more, so you can always keep that flame alight!

The divine power of passion burns uncontested in the sacred hearts collection by Celeste G., each charging love's emotional and spiritual symbol with magic by virtue of brass, enamels, Swarovski and pearls, all combined perfectly to create breathtaking jewels.

It's the exquisite craftsmanship that seems to underpin the flawlessness of a soul in love. One that becomes theatrical, intense and finely chiselled in the Ornella bijoux set which sets vintage style ruby, sapphire and emerald gems against gold-plated brass, distilling all the intensity of the heart.

Passion's knot isn't easily untied, especially when it's done in the 925 silver and natural stones of the Nelson Gioielli chevalier ring, dedicated to his lover's heart and represented, ça va sans dire, by a nautical knot destined to remain tied forever.

And what better way to get wrapped up in the love's allure than to choose the Loom Trade Fair long, silk necklace with wooden spheres in, naturally, deep red? It's beautiful, dramatic, needs no accompaniment and, best of all, it's sustainable as it only uses certified materials.

On Valentine's Day a thought for your loved one is a must, even if they are the furry kind! Because love knows no bounds, the Palladino Design Jewelry necklace shouts it loud and proud, "I'm with the animals". Gold-plated and, more importantly, unique in helping support associations that fight for our four-legged friends.

After all, the perfect recipe is two hearts and...one doghouse! Dedicated to extended families, the Latitude9 necklace features a macro-heart embellished with a small dog's paw.
